... Ann Landers

ber of A.A. must take it to admit that he cannot drink "like other people." He must admit that liquor is poison to him and that he cannot handle even one drop.

If a man (or a woman) alcoholic refuses to help himself he deserves to be told "Goodbye and good luck. Let me know when you are ready to be a self-respecting human being."

Dear Ann Landers: My sister and I each have four children. Whenever one of her children graduated from high school we gave him a $5.00 bill. They did the same for ours.

Last June our oldest son graduated from College. He did not receive a gift from them. In my opinion a college graduation is more important than a high school graduation. He was very disappointed.

In the Spring their third son graduates from high school. Should we give him $5.00. — UNDECIDED

Dear Undecided: Since all the other high school graduates received $5.00, this one should, too.

As for the "disappointed" college graduate, if he never experiences a greater disappointment than THIS he'll be darned lucky.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teenage Smoking," enclosing your request ten cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
